

Religions for Peace

United Kingdom

Religions for Peace United Kingdom, together with the UK Women of Faith Network and the UK Interfaith Youth Network jointly express deep sadness at the passing of His Royal Highness Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, he is the longest-serving royal consort to a British monarch.

We wish to convey our condolences to Her Majesty and Queen and her family for their loss.

Over the years, Prince Philip had supported over 900 charities, and for most of his life, he was dedicated to public duties. His charitable endeavours were not confined to the UK, and he stood behind a wide spectrum of projects across the commonwealth and worldwide. We pay tribute to Prince Philip for his lifetime of service to the betterment of mankind, may he rest in peace.